

CHARTER
UNITED STATES NAVAL ACADEMY BOARD OF VISITORS

- A. Official Designation: The Committee shall be known as the United States Naval Academy Board of Visitors (hereafter referred to as the Board).
- B. Objectives and Scope of Activities: The Board, under the provisions of 10 U.S.C. § 6968, and the Federal Advisory Committee Act of 1972, as amended, shall provide the President of the United States independent advice and recommendations on matters relating to the U.S. Naval Academy, to include but not limited to morale and discipline, curriculum, instruction, physical equipment, fiscal affairs, and academic methods.
- C. Board Membership: The Board shall be composed of not more than 15 members. Under the provisions of 10 U.S.C. § 6968(a), the Board members shall include:
- a. The Chairman of the Committee on Armed Services of the Senate, or his designee;
 - b. Three other members of the Senate designated by the Vice President or the President pro tempore of the Senate, two of whom are members of the Committee on Appropriations of the Senate;
 - c. The chairman of the Committee on Armed Services of the House of Representatives, or his designee;
 - d. Four other members of the House of Representatives designated by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, two of whom are members of the Committee on Appropriations of the House of Representatives; and
 - e. Six persons designated by the President.

Board Members designated by the President shall serve for three years each except that any Member whose term of office has expired shall continue to serve until his successor is appointed. In addition, the President shall designate two persons each year to succeed the Members whose terms expire that year. If a Board Member dies or resigns, a successor shall be designated for the unexpired portion of the term by the official who designated the Member. The Board Members shall select the Board Chairperson from the total membership. Board Members shall, with the exception of travel expenses for official travel, serve without compensation. The Board, pursuant to 10 U.S.C. § 6968(g) and (h), may upon approval by the Secretary of the Navy, call in advisers for consultation, and these advisers shall, with the exception of travel expenses, serve without compensation..

- D. Board Meetings: The Board shall meet at the call of the Designated Federal Officer, in consultation with the Chairperson, and the estimated number of Board Meetings is four per year. The Board shall be authorized to establish subcommittees, as necessary and consistent with its mission, and these subcommittees or working groups shall operate under the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act of 1972, as amended and appropriate Federal Regulations.

Such subcommittees or working groups shall not work independently of the chartered Board, and shall report their recommendations and advice to the Board for full deliberation and discussion. Subcommittees or working groups have no authority to make decisions on behalf of the chartered Board nor can they report directly to the Agency or any Federal officers or employees not Board Members.

In addition, the Board, pursuant to 10 U.S.C. § 6968(d) through (f), shall visit the U.S. Naval Academy annually. Board Members, with the approval of the Secretary of the Navy, may make other visits to the U.S. Naval Academy in connection with their Board Member duties or to consult with the Superintendent of the Academy. Within 60 days after its annual visit, the Board shall submit a written report to the President of the United States of its actions, and of its views and recommendations pertaining to the U.S. Naval Academy. Any report of a visit, other than the annual visit, shall, if approved by a majority of the Board Members, be submitted to the President of the United States within 60 days after the Board's approval.

- E. Duration and Termination of the Board: Pursuant to 10 U.S.C. § 6968 the need for this advisory function is on a continuing basis; however, it is subject to renewal every two years.
- F. Agency Support: The Department of Defense, through the Secretary of the Navy and the U.S. Naval Academy, shall provide support as deemed necessary for the performance of the Board's functions, and shall ensure compliance with the requirements of 5 U.S.C., Appendix.
- G. Operating Costs: It is estimated that the annual operating costs, to include travel costs and contract support, for this Board is $20,000.00. The estimated annual personnel costs to the Department of Defense are .20 full-time equivalents (FTEs).
- H. Charter Filed: October 1, 2006.
